

VIKINGS

By Maja and kamile

Vikings come from Norway, Sweden and Denmark. If you didn't know the name "Vikings" comes from a language called "Old Norse", and it means "a pirate raid". You might think ALL bad, but no. Some Viking are actually good. The Vikings that are good came to Ireland to start farms, keep animals, grow crops, craft and make beautiful metalwork or wood carvings. Vikings also sailed seas to trade goods to buy silver, silks, spices, wine, jewellery, glass and pottery to bring back home with them. The Vikings age in European history was about AD700 to AD1100. In AD865 a huge army of Vikings sailed across the North Sea. Vikings also hanged criminals. Vikings didn't wear horned helmets. Vikings are also known for their excellent cleanness or hygiene. Vikings use Special type of liquid to start fires. Vikings burned dead people on a long boat. The Vikings age in European history was from about AD700 to 1100. Vikings liked to eat porridge, fish, fowl, vegetable, wild green and fruit. Vikings drank ale, buttermilk, water that is from lakes or rivers and the most popular drink when the Vikings attacked was mead, made from strong honey.

That's all we know for now so.....
