

VIKINGS

By Suleyman and Aisha

There was a normal person called Diarmait Mac Murchada. He wanted to be the ruler of Dublin. But it was really hard so he sailed to Wales and he asked King Henry the second for his army. So Diarmait found a warrior called Longbow he had a girly voice. King Henry's army and Diarmait's army fought with the Vikings. They fought for a very long time and he turned into a king.

Vikings used holes instead of toilets and they used leaves instead of TP [Toilet Paper].

Vikings believed in lots of gods like Thor, Oden, Loki and Freya. Their enemy was Thrym and he was a god to.

Vikings come from Sweden, Norway and Denmark they were all called Norse. The Vikings were very cruel, they were stealing everything from everyone. Vikings came in 795AD and left about 1400AD about They were killing people and taking them to be sold for money. It was very scary. Once Vikings even fought Brian Boru!

Vikings ate meat and vegetables two times a day and sometimes sit around a fire place and sing or tell stories.

Long ships looked like monsters from far. Some people didn't even realize because of the scary head, they thought it was a monster. At least sixty Vikings can fit in a Long ship. When the long ship comes closer people realize and start firing arrows. Vikings had shield to protect them, when they come to the land they come out and start fighting. If they want they can take the shield with them. Vikings shield was made with wood around it and in the middle there was iron.

Some Vikings and Norse even started to live in Dublin, Wexford and Waterford. Did you know that some of the days of the week were from Vikings names!

People get punished in those days. They can It is very scary when you done something wrong and they say to you you're going to be hanged. There is more punishments I don't know, they put you in a cage or they can even let you go if the crime wasn't that bad. They also chop of your heads. And when you're in prison they chain your hands to the wall. There was also pillory were they put your hands and your head in a hole and you stay there for a long time in public.
